PRIVACY POLICY

Monifieth Athletic Football Club is a SCIO (Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation) football club in Scotland (the “Club”). The Club is fully committed to protecting personal information and to the principles of data protection as set out in the General Data Protection Regulation 2018.

This privacy statement explains how the Club collects and uses personal information about you.

What categories of data we collect from the individual

- We collect information such as your name, address (postal & email) and phone numbers

Where we collect personal information from

- We collect information from members, players, coaches, club officials, employees, volunteers and parents or guardians of children, to help us run the Club properly, including those who express an interest in these roles or apply to take on one. We also collect information you provide when you attend our events or express an interest in our events, or support the Club financially.

How we use data we collect

- We use your general information to help run the Club properly. We use your contact information to send you our latest news and ways you can support our Club and its events. We use your details to process any payments or the like you have made to us. We make any necessary returns to the SYFA, SFA and DDYFA on coaches, players, officials, members etc. including for PVG, insurance, disciplinary matters and the like. For players, we may need to collect certain medical/health information, and if so we will get your specific consent to do so on application forms etc.

Legal bases under GDPR to justify our processing of data

- We need to use your general information (using data is called ‘processing’ in the Regulations) to help us run the Club properly. We will use your data to send you by email or post our latest news and let you know ways you can support our Club as we feel it is in our legitimate interests to do so. It is also at times necessary to use your personal data for compliance with our legal obligations e.g. when we receive payments or to send necessary information to the regulatory bodies.
- We will also use your data in connection with internal reporting and analysis because we believe it is within our legitimate organisational interests to do so in creating better fundraising events, better communications, and a better website. We employ safeguards, such as internal guidelines, to protect your privacy. To opt out of this processing, please see our section on Data Subject rights.

Third Parties

- We do NOT engage third parties to provide us with information about you.

Data Subject rights

You have the following rights which you can request at any time.

- Right of Access: we must inform you if we have your data, how we process it and give you a copy of your data.
- Right to Rectify: we must correct your data.
- Right of Erasure: we must delete your data.
- Right to Restrict Processing: we must stop processing your data but not delete it.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Players and participants should be aware that comments made on social media sites such as Facebook and Twitter may be considered public comment, and any comments which are deemed improper, bring the game into disrepute, or are threatening, abusive, indecent or insulting may lead to disciplinary action.

It is against SFA, SYFA and DDYFA rules to post comments that are or maybe conceived as Offensive, Insulting, Abusive, Threatening, Racist, Discriminatory or any other reference that may cause offense or harm to others.

Any such comment made on club or league websites and/or social networking sites regarding officials may result in disciplinary action being taken in line with the DDYFA, SYFA and SFA's Disciplinary policies and procedures.

Comments made on websites that are threatening abusive or racist could lead to legal action being taken against those responsible for posting or hosting them. Comments made may attract libel claims and legal action through the civil courts if they are untrue or defamatory.

Any player, coach, official or parent involved with any of the above mentioned actions will be asked to leave the club.
